God's Whisper to the soul: "I love you"

As autumn begins and you see the changing autumn leaves and feel the crisp air, it is God's voice directly whispering "I love you" to your soul. God wants you to do more than just look at His beautiful creation; He is inviting you to actually step inside His eternal Will.

In "The Book of Heaven" in Vol. 35, March 22, 1938, Our Lord states, "Just as creation began in an outpouring of Our love, so We will finish it together with Our children, by an outpouring of love. These children of Ours will serve the complete glory of all creation; it would not be a work worthy of Us if We did not receive the glory that creatures ought to give Us for having created so many things out of love for them."

Every corner of creation serves to reveal to us the glory and majesty of God, just as Psalm 19:1 says "The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of His hands." When we look upon the delicate petals of a flower, listen to the cheerful song of a bird, or witness the beauty of the world around us, we experience a direct, personal whisper from the Creator – a living reminder of His immense love for us.

We're reminded of Romans 1:20, which says His eternal power and divine nature are clearly seen through what has been made. He did not just create these wonders for display; He designed them to invite a relationship; desiring that we recognize His handiwork and return that same love back to Him, remembering 1 John 4:19 - "We love because He first loved us." Too often, we become so caught up in enjoying the beauty and comfort of these everyday blessings, that we overlook the generous Giver who provided them. By pausing to truly see creation, we can shift our hearts from simple enjoyment to active gratitude, mindfulness, and a deeper connection with God.

From the spiritual insights found in the Divine Will writings given by Our Lord to the Servant of God, Luisa Piccarreta, we are reminded that God's Divine Will actively keeps us alive at every passing second. You can give God the infinite love He desires by filling your day with constant gratitude and calling His Divine Will into all your acts throughout the day.

By inviting Jesus to come into your acts, even the smallest daily acts - your breaths, thoughts, and simple tasks - He becomes the prime actor within them, fusing your human acts with His own eternal, Divine actions. This simple act of surrender allows the kingdom of the Divine Will to take root and rule inside your own heart. By thanking Him for every blessing, you echo His Divine actions and let His "Divine Sun" shine brightly through you.

In The Book of Heaven in Vol. 20, Nov. 4, 1926 Our Lord says, "What a beautiful Kingdom It will be - a Kingdom of light, of infinite riches, a Kingdom of perfect sanctity and of dominion. Our children of this Kingdom will all be kings and queens; they will all be members of the divine and royal family. They will enclose all creation within themselves; they will have the resemblance of Our Celestial Father, and therefore will be the fulfillment of Our glory and the crown of Our Head."

It is a wonderful time to be alive, fully embracing the gift of living within God's Divine Will. We come to realize more and more that God's timing and plans are inherently good. Even during hardships you come to rest in the knowledge that your life is held by an all-knowing, loving Creator. As you live this way of life, you stop measuring your life against others, knowing your path is uniquely designed by God.

Pictured here is a statue of Luisa Piccarreta in the Convent garden where she lived with the Daughters of Divine Zeal. This garden where she spent time was later commemorated and named the "Garden of the Sun."

Jesus says to Luisa in Vol. 12, November 20, 1917. "Oh, how beautiful it is to live in My Will! This pleases Me so much that in future generations I will make all other forms of holiness disappear, whatever their virtues. I will make holiness in My Will reappear, which is not and will not be human, but Divine holiness."

Over the past year, I have had the privilege of speaking at various Divine Will conferences and retreats globally. It has been a deeply rewarding experience to witness the immense love and joy radiating from those who are embracing this beautiful gift.

During a recent Divine Will retreat in Belgium, a couple from Paris shared that 20,000 people joined the Catholic Church in France this past Easter. Curiously, local priests don't know why; they haven't changed their approach. I believe this spiritual awakening is directly tied to the growing number of people who are embracing the gift of living in God's Divine Will. In the Divine Will writings, Jesus teaches us that He takes our acts and "rounds" - our "I love You" placed on everything in Creation, Redemption, and Sanctification - and sends them across the world. Done by Jesus, these acts are Divine, Eternal, and Limitless, raining down graces on every soul open to receiving them.

Here in the United States, many people have shared with me that this past Easter saw an unprecedented number of people entering the Catholic Church. To me, this is a sign that the "Our Father" prayer that we've been praying for centuries is finally coming to fruition. His Kingdom is coming to reign on Earth as it is in Heaven.

Open your heart to receive a special gift from God simply by asking for it, and explore the divine teachings given to Luisa in the "Book of Heaven".

May we all strive to live each day in the beautiful gift of the Divine Will, ensuring our Eternal Father receives the ultimate honor and glory He so richly deserves. To receive this profound gift, one needs only to desire it.
